Frequently Asked Questions

It will be three weeks of pure joy.

Kahlil Gibran said: Music is the language of the spirit. It opens the secret of life, bringing peace, abolishing strife.

Well, on this Magical Musical Camino, you'll laugh, sing, dance and celebrate the joy and wonder of the ancient trail.

I promise you, you'll be in for the journey of a lifetime.

Let's go walking!!!

How much does it cost to secure a spot?

$1000 Australian dollars; $US640; €600; £520.

How do I pay?

Go to danmullinsmusic.com and follow the prompts.

When is it?

First three weeks of May 2024.

How many people will be going?

50. Plus Dan.

That's a lot of money! Where will it all go?

Production and manufacturing: including one of Australia's leading record producers, studios, musicians (including flights and accommodation), recording, mixing and mastering ten songs.

Will Dan be booking my accommodation?

No. The onus will be on individual pilgrims to book their own accommodation. You don't want Dan responsible for where you end up sleeping. You may end up in a park.

Will Dan be organising food/catering?

No. The onus will be on individual pilgrims to organise their own meals. Many of the venues Dan will be performing at will have meals.

What towns will we visit?

Dan is starting in Leon. A detailed itinerary will be sent to you when you confirm your spot.

Where will Dan be performing?

While venues are still being finalised, your itinerary will list the towns where shows will be held, and days when there will be no show (or at least no formal show).

What does my money get me?

A sponsorship of Dan's new record 'Storyteller' and the opportunity to walk a musical Camino with Dan, host of My Camino - the Podcast and songwriter of Somewhere Along the Way (the Camino Song).

Who else is walking?

There will be quite a few Australians. There will be members of Dan's family and friends. And pilgrims from all over the world.

What happens when we get to Santiago?

We are still working on the venue for the final night's show, but you can be assured it will be a night to remember.

Who can I contact to learn more?

Dan! danmullinsmusic@gmail.com

Can I hear the songs on the record before the record is made?

Sure. Dan's happy to send his sponsors demo copies of the songs. He'll even record one specially for you.

Will Somewhere Along the Way be on the new record?

We're seriously considering including a new, more stripped back version on the new record. Dan's hoping a NEW song will rise up on the Camino in May 2024.

Can I request a song on the Camino?

Of course! Email Dan at danmullinsmusic@gmail.com and if he doesn't know the song, he'll learn it.

One of the nights will be my birthday/special occasion. Can we celebrate with Dan?

Of course! Dan will be delighted to make a song and dance about your special occasion. That's what this Camino is all about. Walking, singing, celebrating and being part of a magical musical Camino.
